Robinson Waters & O’Dorisio Chooses and Implements Worldox®
Achieving Better, Affordable Document Management

RIDGEWOOD, NJ – February 16, 2011 – World Software Corporation® (www.worldox.com) today announces that Denver law firm Robinson Waters & O’Dorisio, P.C. (RWO) (www.rwolaw.com) has purchased and implemented Worldox as its Document Management System (DMS), converting from Open Text/Hummingbird DMS. A full-service law firm with over 30 attorneys, RWO chose Worldox to improve document management stability and comprehensive integration at an affordable price.

Network Administrator Donna Steir and Legal Administrator Stephen Dickson of RWO spearheaded the DMS change. Steir comments, “We knew we needed new document management software. Price was important to us, but I was mostly concerned with how well it was going to work. With Worldox, we have the best of all worlds. Worldox integrates perfectly with our desktop applications and is compatible with our hardware. It was an affordable choice with great ease-of-use.”

With the help of Denver-based Worldox reseller DCNC, Inc. (www.dcninc.com), RWO’s Worldox installation was completed in a single weekend. DCNC exported all the firm’s legacy documents out of Open Text prior to the install, which greatly sped up the process. DCNC oversaw the installation, and Worldox was in place, successfully up-and-running by Monday morning.

Dickson notes that, “By far, DCNC’s install of Worldox was the best technology installation I have experienced in my 14 years at this firm. DCNC was outstanding. They have great people that do excellent work, and we’ve seen a marked decrease in help desk calls. Worldox is reliable and is similar enough to our previous system that our users learned it quickly.”

Worldox President Ray Zwiefelhofer remarks, “We are pleased that Robinson Waters & O’Dorisio had a successful Worldox integration. We also congratulate DCNC on their stellar performance. World Software Corporation is dedicated to providing a quality product and technical support and will continue to maintain its commitment to excellence.”
