SYNAPTEC'S LAWBASE PRACTICE MANAGEMENT SOFTWARE ACHIEVES WORLDOX COMPLETECLOUD CERTIFICATION AND ENHANCED INTEGRATION

GLEN ROCK, NJ AND DENVER, CO – AUGUST 3, 2011 - World Software Corporation® (www.worldox.com) and Synaptec Software (www.lawbase.com) have announced an expanded alliance between their two companies. Both are successful veteran software developers in the legal technology industry.

This deepened business alliance includes two important parts. First, Synaptec's LawBase case and matter management software has been certified within the Worldox CompleteCloud hosted desktop; and second, Worldox/LawBase integration has been improved with simultaneous synchronization of client and matter tables.

Highlights of the Expanded Worldox/LawBase Partnership

- LawBase Certified for Worldox CompleteCloud
  The LawBase application has been certified for inclusion in the Worldox CompleteCloud hosted desktop. Introduced one year ago, the Worldox CompleteCloud has become a substantially popular offering with law firms who want access to a seamlessly integrated virtual desktop which includes Worldox, Microsoft Office and other application software.

- Enhanced Worldox/LawBase Integration
  Worldox/LawBase integration had always included the ability to directly link to the Worldox document store with a single click. But now, LawBase can also keep the Worldox client and matter tables up-to-date in real time when changes are made in the practice management system. This is also true if LawBase is integrated with an accounting system.

World Software President Ray Zwiefelhofer remarks, "World Software Corporation is proud to extend its partnership with Synaptec and LawBase. We have many mutual customers using our software that will benefit from this expanded relationship."

According to Phil Homburger, President of Synaptec, "LawBase has been on the market for 30 years. During that long tenure, we have developed reliable, intuitive software that has attracted many customers, many of which also use Worldox. We are pleased to be deepening the ties between LawBase and Worldox. Clearly, this is a win-win for our companies and our customers alike."
