

FINANCING SOLUTIONS

Create Customer Success Story

The Vendor:

Offering a full range of technology solutions and related services to law firms and corporate legal departments primarily in the Western United States, Baker+Cadence Solutions is a highly valued partner and trusted resource to clients for their technology solutions, including software applications and training, network services and support

The Client:

Springel & Fink is a litigation firm comprised of talented, experienced attorneys who are dedicated to exceeding each client's unique needs. Their core talent lies in ability to assess a case and develop a strategy for a successful resolution. They understand legal strategy and work closely with each client to make sure they are comfortable and informed every step of the way

Customer Project Background:

The client was looking to do the following, without using their bank credit or working capital lines:

- Update their time and billing software
- Purchase a document management solution (Worldox)
- Upgrade their litigation calendaring and docketing solution
- Seamlessly integrate all of their programs and applications over multiple locations

Dimension's Solution:

The team at Dimension Funding was able to develop a deeper understanding of the business needs and deliver a comprehensive and competitive capital solution, including:

-Vendor received a 50% progress payment in advance to start the project. As project costs increased, Dimension was easily able to accommodate without any complicated additional documentation.

-Ability to include multitude of soft costs on the financing agreement

-Ability to finance 100% of the project

-Extremely competitive rates that matched closely what their bank was offering.

-Ability to finance the project for a term that met their specific budget requirement.

-Approval without the need for credit applications and financial statements.

With a track record of success, Dimension's creative and flexible financing programs add value to your products and services. Dimension provides the financing programs your business needs to accelerate sales cycles. Contact us to discuss your own specific requirements for implementing proactive finance programs that will enable not only more sales....but more profitable sales as well.
